Friday Afternoon Movies

Movies begin at 1:00pm, snacks and refreshments are served.

January 4—The Spy Who Dumped Me— Getting dumped always hurts, but Audrey is well rid of her ex when he shows up at her door on the run from a band of assassins. Unaware that he's really a spy, Audrey and her best friend soon find themselves plunged into a global conspiracy in this comedy starring Mila Kunis.

January 11—White Boy Rick—Set in 1980s Detroit at the height of the crack epidemic and the War on Drugs, White Boy Rick is based on the moving true story of a blue-collar father and his teenage son, Rick Wershe Jr., who became an undercover police informant and later a drug dealer before he was abandoned by his handlers and sentenced to life in prison.

January 18—Little Women—From girls playing in the attic to women living with purpose, the March sisters ~ Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy ~ are committed to always supporting each other. Yet growing up sometimes means growing apart. When tragedy brings the sisters back home, sticking together takes on a new meaning. Little Women brings the same sisters to a new generation to celebrate dreams, family and unconditional love.

January 25—First Man—When America needed a hero, test pilot turned astronaut Neil Armstrong stepped up to the plate, becoming the first person to walk on the moon. This absorbing biopic recounts his extraordinary journey and the sacrifices demanded of him along the way.

We are always looking for ideas for movies to show. Maybe there's an older movie that you may have seen and liked, or something you may have missed when it was in theaters.

Let us know your suggestions!
