MARCH, 2019

Celebrate PI(E) Day with Us!

Join us on Thursday, March 14th at 5:30pm for some savory Pizza Pies, as well as some sweet Dessert Pies! Please let us know if you'll be coming by calling the rental office by March 11th.

Dips & Designs!

Join us on Thursday, March 21st to create your own Floral painting just in time for Spring! We'll have 2 paintings to choose from and with guided instruction, you'll bring home a beautiful, one of a kind, 10 x 10 painting...the perfect size for your apartment! Cost per person is $20.00.

We'll provide dips, snacks and soft drinks...feel free to bring your own additional beverages of choice!

You can stop by the Rental Office to see the two painting options and RSVP with payment is due by Monday, March 18th.

Friday Afternoon Movies

March 1—Widows—When four thieves are killed during a robbery attempt, their widows find themselves facing shaky futures. The ladies then decide to join forces to finish the heist.

March 8—Instant Family—A couple decides to start a family through foster care adoption. They hope to take in one small child, but when they meet three siblings, they find themselves speeding from zero to three kids overnight.

March 15—Green Book—Oscar Winner for Best Picture and Supporting Actor, Green Book is the story of an African-American pianist who embarks on a concert tour in the Deep South in 1962. He hires a tough-talking bouncer from the Bronx as his driver. Despite their differences, the two men soon develop an unexpected bond while confronting racism and danger in an era of segregation.

March 22—The Front Runner—In this fact-based drama, Sen. Gary Hart is the front-runner for the 1988 Democratic presidential nomination -- but he sees his ambitions short-circuited when reports of an extramarital affair turn up in the media.

March 29—The Wife—Glenn Close portrays a gifted writer accompanying her husband who is about to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature, when a long-simmering resentment begins to emerge.

Movies begin at 1:00pm, Snacks and Refreshments are served

31	Maintenance Reminder...Please do not flush any type of "flushable" wipes (personal or cleaning) and/or any type of cat litter. The wipes may be labeled as "flushable" but do not break down within the sewer pipes in enough time and have caused recent sewer blockages. Any kind of kitty litter expands in the pipes and causes the same type of problems. Thank you for your cooperation!
